

registered, excel

ISSN: 3059-9407 (Print/Online)

The Saraswati Review

Contemporary Journal of the English Language and Literature

Vol. I, No.1, November 2024

Blind Peer-reviewed Biannual Publication of
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
Saraswati Multiple Campus
Tribhuvan University
Kathmandu, Nepal

Table of Contents

1.	Narrativizing Trauma: A Way of Anticipating Peace and Solidarity in Dhruba Chandra Gautam's "The Conclusion"	Badri Prasad Pokharel, PhD	1
2.	Situated Meaning in Patricia McCormick's Novel Cut	Bhim Prasad Subedi	7
3.	Realistic Fiction, Experimental Fiction and Culture: A Debate	Bijay Kumur Kharel	16
4.	Intangible Culture of Magar Community in Tanahun District: A Study of Bhimad Municipality	Bishnu Sigdel	25
5.	The Geopolitics of Revenge and Justice in Agatha Christie's Murder on the Orient Express	Chandra Bahadur K. C.	32
6.	An Indigenous Reading of Ella Cara Deloria's Waterlily	Kul Bahadur Khadka	40
8.	Love, Sex and Racism in Charles Chesnutt's Selected Narratives	Madhab Prasad Dahal, PhD	49
7.	Analyzing Disruptive Conduct among Kathmandu Valley Students: Investigating Student Behavior Patterns	Peshal Luitel	58
9.	Exploring Narrative Techniques in Graphic Novels	Rajendra Prasad Chapagae, PhD	71